Fall 2026 Wego Elementary School International Program IP1F

Midterm Study Guide

Vocabulary:

1. Able to identify which two words to use to complete a sentence based on context.
2. Able to spell the target vocabulary words in the word bank.

Phonics:

1. Able to spell the blends when heard and identify phonemes.
2. Able to identify the same underlined sound as the word you hear.

Grammar:

1. Able to distinguish when to use plural nouns.
2. Able to use capital letters when writing proper nouns.
3. Able to identify adjectives of size, color, shape, how many or how much.

Word Study:

1. Able to use context clues to identify and sort nouns as person, place or thing.
2. Able to sort words based on common characteristics.

Reading Strategies:

1. Able to retell and respond after reading a passage.
2. Able to monitor what the characters do based on the details from the text.

Reading Comprehension:

1. Able to identify the setting by looking at the details.
2. Able to recognize and reply about the characters and the plot.
3. Able to predict and make conclusions as you read.